A yantra is a two-dimensional or three-dimensional representation of Cosmic Energy. The Energy basically exists in the junction point of triangles or circles called Sandhi in Sanskrit. Sri Chakram is considered to be Yantra Raja meaning king of all the Yantras, which will give both materialistic prosperity and spiritual enlightenment when worshipped. Navavarana Puja is a method of understanding the essence of Sri Yantra and also the method of inner worship. It involves in invoking all the energies in the Yantra and worshipping it with 64 services called upacharas. This is unique puja workshop, anyone who is dedicated and interested can learn.

When: Saturday (9:00 am to 7:00 pm) and Sunday (8:00 am to 4:30pm)

Of April 21st & 22nd, 2007 (Registration starts at Sat. @ 8:15 am)

Where: Sri Rajarajeswari Peetam, 6980 East River Rd., Rush, New York. (at Temple)

There is a nominal fee for this workshop to cover the cost of the materials (includes 1 instructional DVD, 2 Mantra CDs, 1 Puja manual) and to organize the workshop. Due to the complex nature of the subject matter the workshop is more suitable for individuals 16 year of age and over.
